1. Was the let - ter bomb for me? Or the poi - soned cup of tea? Was the bul - let thru my car go - ing just a bit too far? Was it an - y - thing I said that made you want me dead? Well there's no - thing you can say or do that'll change the way I feel a - bout you. That's why I named a dead - end road af - ter you and a hol - i - day on May thir - ty - two, then I carved your name in the sole of my shoe, so I ne - ver could for-get you. I wrote your name in the sky with a plane and on a side - walk with co - lored chalk

Fmaj⁷ Dm G⁷ C

C Dm G⁷

C Fmaj⁷ Dm

in the rain, then I signed it in soap on my cracked win - dow-pane so your name won't fade a-way. 2. Did I ev - er make you cry? Stick a pen - cil in your eye? Did I once in-sult your mom? Make you gro - vel for a crumb? Did I steal what's in your purse? Did you

G⁷ C C C

F C C C

G G⁷ C C

F C F C

e - ver hear me curse? Then I can't sur-mise what I did wrong. Won't you call me and tell me when you hear my song? Be-cause I carved your name in the stump

F Dm G C

Dm G⁷ C Fmaj⁷

of a tree and on a hunk of ma-ple su - gar can-dy, called it in on a pro-gram on late-

Dm G⁷ C C

- night Tee-Vee, so your name will last for-e - ver. Then I wrote your name in fudge

Dm G⁷ C

on a cake and on a leak - y boat that I sank in a lake, then I

Fmaj⁷ Dm G⁷ C

signed it in sand on a beach with a rake, so your name will ling - er on. 3.From the hints I've late - ly had I can see you're pret - ty mad. Is it be - cause I won't bow down and kiss your foot-prints on the ground? Then be - hold these things I've done, all my me - mor - ials to you, Hon. May-be

D D G D
